CRAYCROFT YOUTH CENTER

Function: A part of the Fresno Rescue Mission program, the “Rescue the Children” Craycroft Youth Center is a 30-day emergency shelter for abandoned, abused and neglected children who are picked up by Child Protective Services and placed in the Center. These children are not juvenile delinquents, but rather victims who haven’t done anything wrong and have no control over their circumstances.

Services: The Fresno Rescue Mission, working in conjunction with Fresno County Department of Children and Family Services, provides these children with a safe, secure and loving environment while they are in transition, awaiting family, custodial or foster care decisions.
